

Contents

Preface

- A perspective on mediterranean landscape history vii
Catherine Delano Smith

Introduction

- Ligurian landscapes: microhistory and environmental history 1
Ross Balzaretti, Mark Pearce and Charles Watkins

Chapter 1

- Late Würm Lateglacial and Holocene environmental history of the Ligurian Apennines, Italy 7
Nick P. Branch

Chapter 2

- I monti sun eggi*: the making of the Ligurian landscape in prehistory 71
Roberto Maggi

Chapter 3

- Surveying the prehistoric copper mine at Libiola (Sestri Levante–GE), Italy 83
Michael McCullagh and Mark Pearce

Chapter 4

- Microhistorical approaches to the history of Liguria: from microanalysis to local history 97
Edoardo Grendi's achievements
Oswaldo Raggio

Chapter 5

- Meat provisioning in Ancien Régime Genoa 105
Edoardo Grendi†

Chapter 6

- The history of the countryside in sixteenth-century Varese Ligure 113
Ross Balzaretti

Chapter 7

- Escaping from 'landscape': the historical and environmental identification of local land-management practices in the post-medieval Ligurian mountains 129
Diego Moreno

Chapter 8

- The management history and conservation of terraces in the Val di Vara, Liguria 141
Charles Watkins

Chapter 9
Multiple use of tree-land in the northern Apennines during the post-medieval period
Roberta Cevasco	165
Chapter 10
Urban exploitation of common rights: two models of land use in the Val di Vara
Sandro Lagomarsini	189
Bibliography	199