

Contents

Introduction. Approaching the study of ritual John B. Wilkins	1
Ritual Objects. Archaeological joke or neglected evidence? Ruth D. Whitehouse	9
Cult and Burial in the Neolithic and Early Bronze Age Central Mediterranean. An assessment of the potential Caroline Malone	31
Engraving the boundaries Exploring space and surface in Etruscan funerary architecture Vedia Izzet	55
Dead Dogs and Rattles. Time, space and ritual sacrifice in Iron Age Latium Christopher Smith	73
Ritual Landscapes in Archaic Etruria Corinna Riva and Simon Stoddart	91
Ritual, Landscape and the Destruction of Place in the Roman Imagination Ray Laurence	111
Urban Language Ritual John B. Wilkins	123
‘Using your religion’ Native ritual and belief in Southern Italy in the 5th and 4th centuries BC Edward Herring	143
Addresses of contributors	183